

Summary

Hi, I'm Sahil a self-taught certified, design thinking full-stack JavaScript developer with a passion for motion design. I'm currently living in New Delhi. I'm an absolute geek and love geeking out on all things about different languages. Whether it's creating servers in Node.js, connecting to MongoDB databases, or designing unique user experiences per device whilst still maintaining a consistent brand experience I will bring your ideas to life. Also, have proficient knowledge of front-end libraries like React.js and Redux.
